A Word from the President

Here we go again for another art filled year. We have a great show at the library, thanks to all the members who brought in their art work. The reception fit in so well with all the holiday parties. A special thanks to those who helped to hang the show and to members who worked for the reception.

There are more activities we are working on for the new year. Another trip to the Boston Museum of Fine Art to see the new wing of the Americas, a show and tell to be held at the library and some wonderful demonstrations. For this month get your art work ready to be critiqued. It is always an eye-opener to see what others think of your work.

Hope everyone enjoyed the holiday season and are ready to get back on a normal schedule.

Happy New Year,
Helen Moriarty, President

January Critique

"Paradise" painting by Dianne Levine

The Chelmsford Art Society is featuring Dianne Levine who will be critiquing art work at the January monthly meeting. Members and anyone interested may bring one or two pieces to be critiqued.

Dianne Levine is an internationally known artist. She has resided in many states in the U.S. and Japan. Her work has been seen in the Tokyo Metropolitan museum and in corporate collections. Levine is a juried artist with many awards.

Dianne Levine has been a teacher and an artist for 48 years. A graduate of Moore College of Art in Philadelphia, she began her career in advertising in New York City, but always felt that her future was in fine art. Leaving advertising to pursue her dream she never looked back.

Working in pastel, oil and water media, her focus has been mostly on landscape although she is happy to paint an occasional still life or portrait.

"My Valentine Roses" by Dianne Levine

Dianne has demonstrated pastel painting for the Chelmsford Art Society and has previously been a judge for the 4th of July Art Festival. She presently teaches pastels at the Lexington Arts and Crafts Society.

The Chelmsford Art Society will meet for the critique on Tuesday, January 25, 2011, at 7:00 PM at Chelmsford Center for the Arts, 1 North Rd., Chelmsford, MA.
