Silent Auction a Success!

The Silent Auction we had during the Harrington Liquor Wine Tasting Event was a huge success. 35 artworks were sold 20 of them for nearly $3000 in total. The event required the committee and volunteers to make it happen and it was worth it.

With our participating members receiving 75% of the selling price for the pieces that sold, the committee and Harrington Liquor will do it again next year to support our members in their art and passion.

This was Harrington Liquor's 14th Wine and Tasting event and they confirmed that it was their biggest turn out yet. Those who have attended can attest to the delicious wine, good food, and most especially wonderful was the "chocolate fountain". They even had marshmallows to run under the chocolate fountain, which was divine!

Those who came enjoyed the atmosphere, the music, and witnessed Marie Marchand won a huge bottle of wine in the raffle.

Thanks to Harrington Liquor for allowing the Chelmsford Art Society to run our Silent Auction. Special Thanks also to The Art Room. Without their last minute help with easels, we would never have been set up by 6:30 pm. Thanks also to our Auction Committee and all those who helped before, during, or after the auction.

start preparing your artwork for next year, because there is a good chance that we will this again next year!

Happy Painting!

Diane Levine Pastel Demonstration

We had a great turnout for our October Members' meeting, despite the fact that it was Halloween. Decked out for the holiday, our demonstrator, pastel artist Diane Levine showed up in a black pointy witch's hat. Levine treated us to a wonderful demonstration of her pastel technique, working from a photo from Cobbs Cook Bay in Edmunds, Maine. Her favorite pastel materials include LaCarte paper with a micro-filament coating in a number of colors including gray and salmon, (but never white) and Terry Ludwig or Mt. Vision pastels. Levine said she's been on "cloud kick" in her artwork lately and this certainly showed in the beautiful and colorful piece she created. It was mostly sky and clouds and the reflection of sky and clouds.

November Demo

This month the Chelmsford Art Society will present a demonstration in Oil Painting by Maine artist, Dennis Poirier, who grew up in Gloucester, MA. The colors, sights, and sounds of the busy port and fishing fleet inspire him. He believes painting on location is worth a thousand photographs. The camera records everything; the artist must be selective.

Poirier is a graduate of the Butera School of Art in Boston, the Gloucester Academy of Fine Arts and the Arts Students League in New York City. He has taught at the Gloucester Academy and helped noted artist, Don Stone teach classes on Monhegan Island. He presently teaches Plein Air (outdoor) classes for all ages and levels in the summer and holds workshops at the Dennis Poirier Gallery, 33 Wells St., North Berwick, ME.

At the Nov 28 meeting, we will be raffling off a gift certificate to Bainbridges Restaurant.

The Chelmsford Art Society meets on Tuesday, November 28, 2006 at 7pm at The Town Offices, 50 Billerica Rd., Room 204, Chelmsford, MA.

Everyone Welcome! For information call: 978 251 3971 or 978 957 5058

This is your newsletter!

We encourage submissions: text and photos. Contact Jen Heater at Rippart@aol.com or call 978.256.3807 or mail to at 26 Dalton Road, Chelmsford, MA 01824.

The general goal of the Chelmsford Art Society is to foster an active interest in the arts and community. This is done through demonstrations, lectures, exhibits and field trips throughout the year. Meetings are held the last Tuesday of each month at 7:00 pm

The WRITERS Show on community cable TV stations often features CAS artists. In December watch for the art work of Westford's Mary O'Connell, who has also been featured on our great CAS Website. The December author is award-winning columnist Linda Weltner (who used to write regularly for the Boston Globe) and her daughter Laura Plunkett. Their book, "The Challenge of Childhood Diabetes", recounts the family's struggle when Laura's son was diagnosed with Juvenile Diabetes. The program appears on cable stations in Chelmsford, Lowell, Billerica, and Westford. Check local listings.

Jennifer Heater will show her most current work at the Parash Center for the Arts in Westford for the month of December. All are invited to attend the opening reception on December 9th from 7 to 9 P.M.
